Question	Answer	Marks
1.	a) NO. b) Reasons may include: Priestley states the heat ‘was not a pleasant heat’/the heat is described as ‘sulky’/Priestley describes the place as an ‘oven’ which suggests that people were feeling cooked alive/ there is no breath in the surrounding fields – suggesting people cannot breathe/There is a suggestion that all the ‘air inside the school’ had been ‘used over and over again’. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Please give one mark for each correct reason. Direct quotations are allowed.</li> <li>– Please do not mark as correct if students refer to food: this is not answering the question.</li> </ul>	3 marks
2.	Beef and carrots.	1 mark
3.	Carve/cut the beef – can accept a direct quotation: ‘hacked off innumerable slices of boiled beef’. Can also accept quotations that show candidate has understood Inigo’s job in the school and have inferred ‘Inigo had to sit with the boys’ or ‘Inigo had to make sure that the boys had beef’. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– DO NOT accept verb only: ‘Inigo had to slice’.</li> </ul>	1 mark
4.	‘Hot, sick and cross.’ Direct quotations are fine. Students only get the mark for mentioning Inigo’s mixture of bad feelings: do not award the mark if they only state that Inigo feels ‘hot’ or ‘sick’.	1 mark
5.	Answers could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Inigo felt ‘sick’ after his lunch so wanted to be outside.</li> <li>– His room was ‘too stuffy’ to be comfortable in so he went outside.</li> <li>– He would get shade from being under the tree.</li> <li>– He wanted to get through the afternoon (wanted to ‘stun the gigantic and silly afternoon’) so reading was a good way to kill time.</li> </ul> One mark per clear answer and one additional mark for SPaG.	3 marks
6.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– He has missed tea / ‘it is past tea-time’ / accept ‘he is hungry’ as this infers understanding.</li> <li>– It is cooler.</li> <li>– He is very stiff/He has to limp when he returns to his room.</li> <li>– He has a headache.</li> </ul> To award all four marks, candidates need to cover Inigo’s four separate discoveries. Direct quotations are fine.	4 marks
7.	Answers can include: <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <tr> <td style="padding: 5px; vertical-align: top;"> QUOTATIONS            ‘pompous’             ‘expanse of forehead...[which is described as] misleading’.            Mr Tarvin’s ‘mouth’ (if seen) would be ‘weak’.            Mr Tarvin has ‘trained his moustache to hide’ his mouth.         </td><td style="padding: 5px; vertical-align: top;"> EXPLANATION            Mr Tarvin wants to show off and boss people around.            Mr Tarvin looks like he should have a large brain/be intelligent but is actually stupid.            Suggests that Mr Tarvin’s personality is also weak.            Suggests that Mr Tarvin is vain or deceitful.         </td></tr> </table> One mark for each well selected quotation (maximum 2 marks). One mark for each clear explanation (maximum 2 marks). One mark for accurate SPaG for explanation (no need to attach SPaG to quotations).	QUOTATIONS ‘pompous’  ‘expanse of forehead...[which is described as] misleading’.
